

Do You Enjoy Helping Others?

Catholic Charities Volunteer Services is looking for individuals or groups who have a belief in the importance of service to our community, and who are patient, reliable, and dependable. There is a need to provide assistance to low-income elders and adults with disabilities, to maintain their independent living.

Tasks could include chopping wood, yard-care, light house cleaning, transportation, minor home repair, moving, communications, pet-care, emergency preparation, etc.

If you or your respective group is interested and would like more information, contact:
